

Gearing Up to Increase Production: An Equipment Day for Vegetable Farmers

September 18, 2008, 9:00— 4:00

Southwest Michigan Research Center (SWMREC)

1791 Hillandale Road, Benton Harbor, MI 49022

Featuring demonstrations of equipment that may help you streamline many steps of small scale vegetable production:

- ✿ Soil Management
- ✿ Mulching
- ✿ Transplanting
- ✿ Bed formation
- ✿ Irrigating
- ✿ Weeding
- ✿ Cooling for transport
- ✿ FSA and Credit Union representatives

Cost is for workshop is $25 per person, box lunch included
Trade Booth available for $50.00 which includes 2 registrations and a table

Register by Sept 12, 2008

Go to WWW.MichiganOrganic.Msu.Edu

Program sponsored by: USDA Farm Service Agency and the CS Mott Group for Sustainable Food Systems at Michigan State University

Directions and Registration

Southwest Michigan Research Center Equipment Demonstration Day
Thursday, September 18th, 2008
9:00 am — 4:00 pm

Workshop Location

Southwest Michigan Research Center
1791 Hillandale Road
Benton Harbor, MI 49022
Phone: 269-944-1477

Exit 30 (Napier Ave) on Route 94 in Benton Harbor

Registration:

- Early-bird registration before September 12 will cost $25.
- After this date cost is $30 per person.
- Walk-ins are not guaranteed a lunch.
- Registration for a trade-show table @ $50 by Sept 12.
- After this date (including walk-ins) is $75. Trade booth includes registrations for two people, a table, and two chairs.

Questions call Vicki Morrone, 517-353-3542

Registration may be made online or by mail.

Online: Visit www.MichiganOrganic.msu.edu to pay by credit card, check payable to Michigan State University

Mail: Send registration & check to 303 Natural Resources, East Lansing, MI 48824

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____

Email: _____